

Wakefield Loses Eight Mat Men

Coach Vic Blue of Wakefield High School today listed eight members of his wrestling team, two of them boys who have started in each of the Warriors matches so far, as "positively out" for tomorrow's tussle over at Episcopal and three others are "doubtful."

Gone from the line-up for this week are Jerry Hand, who grapples in 140 class, and Jim McIntosh, who tussles in the 175 pound division. Steve Hall is still limping on a sprained ankle that kept him out of the last match and is listed as doubtful.

Other lads out of competition this week who haven't seen much action but who Coach Blue was relying on as replacements are Buck Mucho, Jim Gildea, David Evans, Roderick Wilson, Rod Wenger and Roger Wagner. Jimmy Edwards and Sonny James are in the doubtful group.

Blue's action came as no surprise since an earlier announcement was made regarding the large number of matmen recently taken ill but the coach made it official early this morning with the following statement: "Even if any of those boys listed as positively out should return (to practice) today they would not be permitted to wrestle due to their physical condition."
